

RENANCE

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, WARRI

GST 102 — Past Questions & Materials

by Renance

Course: GST 102

Institution: College of Education, Warri

Papers in this pack: 1

Levels: 100

This study pack was compiled and restructured by Renance for GST 102 students at College of Education, Warri. It brings together 1 past paper(s)/material(s) into one clean, readable document so you can revise without chasing scattered PDFs. Practise these same questions interactively on Renance with instant answers, AI explanations, and full CBT mock exams — over 235,000+ questions across JAMB, Post-UTME, WAEC, NECO and university courses.

Study online: renance.app

Get the app: Google Play — dev.renance.renance

Generated by Renance AI

Paper 1 of 1 — GST 102 PHILOSOPHY AND LOGIC FIRST SEMESTER 2024/2025

Level 100 • First Semester • PastQuestion

This source paper is a scanned document; its pages are reproduced below.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, WARRI IN AFFILIATION WITH DELTA STATE UNIVERSITY, ABRAKA DIRECTORATE OF GENERAL STUDIES
FIRST SEMESTER 2024/2025 DEGREE EXAMINATION
GST 102 PHILOSOPHY AND LOGIC

INSTRUCTION: ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS TIME: 1hr 10mins

1. Metaphysics is the branch of philosophy that studies: A. The nature of reality B. The theory of knowledge C. The study of morality D. The study of language E. The study of beauty and art
2. Epistemology is the branch of philosophy that studies: A. The nature of reality B. The theory of knowledge C. The study of morality D. The study of language E. The study of beauty and art
3. Ethics is the branch of philosophy that studies: A. The nature of reality B. The theory of knowledge C. The study of morality D. The study of language E. The study of beauty and art
4. Aesthetics is the branch of philosophy that studies: A. The nature of reality B. The theory of knowledge C. The study of morality D. The study of language E. The study of beauty and art
5. Logic is the branch of philosophy that studies: A. The nature of reality B. The theory of knowledge C. The study of morality D. The study of language E. The study of correct reasoning
6. Socrates is famous for his method of questioning called: A. Dialectic B. Empiricism C. Rationalism D. Skepticism E. Materialism
7. Plato was a student of: A. Socrates B. Aristotle C. Descartes D. Hume E. Kant
8. Aristotle was a student of: A. Socrates B. Plato C. Descartes D. Hume E. Kant
9. Descartes is famous for his statement: A. "I think, therefore I am" B. "Cogito, ergo sum" C. "Doubt is the beginning of wisdom" D. "All answers to questions of philosophy must be found within philosophy itself" E. "The unexamined life is not worth living"
10. Hume is known for his skepticism about: A. The existence of God B. The existence of the external world C. The possibility of certain knowledge D. The existence of the soul E. All of the above
11. Kant argued that our knowledge is shaped by: A. Experience alone B. Reason alone C. A combination of experience and reason D. Intuition alone E. Facts
12. Existentialism is a philosophical movement that emphasizes: A. The importance of reason B. The importance of tradition C. The importance of the individual D. The importance of society E. The importance of God
13. Nihilism is the belief that: A. Everything is meaningless B. Everything is good C. Everything is bad D. Everything is beautiful E. Everything is ugly
14. Absolutism is the belief that: A. There are no absolute truths B. There are absolute truths C. Truth is relative D. Truth is subjective E. Truth is unknowable
15. Relativism is the belief that: A. There are no absolute truths B. There are absolute truths C. Truth is relative D. Truth is subjective E. Truth is unknowable
16. A valid argument is one in which: A. The conclusion follows logically from the premises B. The premises are true C. The conclusion is true D. The premises are not only but real E. The conclusion is probabilistic
17. A sound argument is one that is: A. Valid and has true premises B. Valid but does not have true premises C. Invalid but has true premises D. Invalid and does not have true premises E. Valid and sound at the same time
18. A fallacy is: A. A valid argument B. A sound argument C. An invalid argument D. A false premise E. A logical error
19. A formal fallacy is a mistake in: A. The content of an argument B. The form of an argument C. Both a and b D. Neither a nor b E. None of the above
20. An informal fallacy is a mistake in: A. The content of an argument B. The form of an argument C. Both a and b D. Neither a nor b E. None of the above
21. A deductive argument is one in which: A. The conclusion is likely to be true, but not necessarily B. The conclusion follows necessarily from the premises C. The premises are based on observation D. The premises are based on intuition E. None of the above
22. An inductive argument is one in which: A. The conclusion is likely to be true, but not necessarily B. The conclusion follows necessarily from the premises C. The premises are based on observation D. The premises are based on intuition E. None of the above
23. A syllogism is a type of deductive argument that consists of: A. Two premises and a conclusion B. Three premises and a conclusion C. Four premises and a conclusion D. Five premises and a conclusion E. None of the above
24. A categorical syllogism is a syllogism in which: A. The premises and conclusion are categorical propositions B. The premises and conclusion are conditional propositions C. The premises and conclusion are disjunctive propositions D. The premises and conclusion are hypothetical propositions E. None of the above
25. A hypothetical syllogism is a syllogism in which: A. The premises and conclusion are categorical propositions B. The premises and conclusion are conditional propositions C. The premises and conclusion are disjunctive propositions D. The premises and conclusion are hypothetical propositions E. None of the above
26. Pragmatism is a philosophical movement that emphasizes: A. The importance of abstract ideas B. The importance of subjective experience C. The importance of practical consequences D. The importance of logical consistency E. The importance of traditional values

27. Postmodernism is a philosophical movement that: A. Rejects traditional notions of truth and reality B. Emphasizes objectivity C. Promotes a universal worldview D. Believes in a single, unified narrative E. Supports a hierarchical structure of knowledge
28. Nietzsche is known for his concept of the: A. Overman B. Ideal Form C. Tabula Rasa D. Ghost in the Machine E. Unconscious
29. Sartre is a key figure in the philosophical movement of: A. Existentialism B. Rationalism C. Empiricism D. Idealism E. Materialism
30. Simone de Beauvoir is a prominent figure in: A. Feminist philosophy B. Analytic philosophy C. Continental philosophy D. Pragmatism E. Postmodernism
31. A disjunctive syllogism is a syllogism in which: A. One premise is a disjunction and the other premise denies one disjunct B. Both premises are conditional statements C. Both premises are categorical statements D. One premise is a categorical statement and the other is a conditional statement E. None of the above
32. A fallacy of composition occurs when: A. One assumes that what is true of a part must be true of the whole B. One assumes that what is true of the whole must be true of each part C. One attacks the person making the argument instead of the argument itself D. One draws a conclusion based on insufficient evidence E. One assumes a causal relationship where none exists
33. A fallacy of division occurs when: A. One assumes that what is true of a part must be true of the whole B. One assumes that what is true of the whole must be true of each part C. One attacks the person making the argument instead of the argument itself D. One draws a conclusion based on insufficient evidence E. One assumes a causal relationship where none exists
34. Confucianism is a philosophy that emphasizes: A. Individualism and self-interest B. Social harmony and filial piety C. Asceticism and renunciation of worldly desires D. Divine revelation and religious faith E. Materialistic pursuits and wealth accumulation
35. Taoism is a philosophy that emphasizes: A. Rigid rules and strict moral codes B. Striving for perfection and achievement C. Following a strict religious doctrine D. Living in harmony with nature and the Tao E. Material possessions and social status
36. Buddhism is a philosophy that emphasizes: A. Eternal souls and divine intervention B. Materialistic pleasures and worldly success C. Suffering and the path to enlightenment D. Rigid social hierarchies and caste systems E. Blind faith and unquestioning obedience
37. Existentialism is a philosophical movement that emphasizes: A. Objective reality and external forces B. Determinism and fate C. Subjective experience and individual choice D. Conformity and social norms E. A predetermined, cosmic plan
38. Postmodernism is a philosophical movement that challenges: A. Traditional notions of truth, knowledge, and reality B. Scientific inquiry and rational thought C. Human progress and technological advancement D. All of the above E. None of the above
39. A fallacy of hasty generalization occurs when: A. One draws a conclusion based on a small sample size B. One assumes that a correlation implies causation C. One attacks the person making the argument instead of the argument itself D. One assumes that what is true of a part must be true of the whole E. One assumes that what is true of the whole must be true of each part
40. A fallacy of false dilemma occurs when: A. One presents only two options as if they were the only possibilities B. One assumes that a correlation implies causation C. One attacks the person making the argument instead of the argument itself D. One draws a conclusion based on insufficient evidence E. One assumes that what is true of a part must be true of the whole
41. A fallacy of slippery slope occurs when: A. One argues that a particular action will lead to a chain of events that ends in a disastrous outcome B. One assumes that a correlation implies causation C. One attacks the person making the argument instead of the argument itself D. One draws a conclusion based on insufficient evidence E. One assumes that what is true of a part must be true of the whole
42. A fallacy of appeal to authority occurs when: A. One appeals to an authority figure to support a claim, even if the authority is not an expert on the issue B. One assumes that a correlation implies causation C. One attacks the person making the argument instead of the argument itself D. One draws a conclusion based on insufficient evidence E. One assumes that what is true of a part must be true of the whole
43. A fallacy of ad hominem occurs when: A. One attacks the person making the argument instead of the argument itself B. One assumes that a correlation implies causation C. One draws a conclusion based on insufficient evidence D. One assumes that what is true of a part must be true of the whole E. One assumes that what is true of the whole must be true of each part
44. Phenomenology is a philosophical movement that emphasizes: A. The study of the physical world and its laws B. The study of the mind and its mental states C. The study of the structures of consciousness D. The study of language and its meaning E. The study of the history of philosophy
45. Analytic philosophy is a philosophical movement that emphasizes: A. Speculative metaphysics and grand theories B. Clear and precise language and logical analysis C. Intuitive understanding and subjective experience D. Mystical experience and spiritual insight E. Historical and cultural context
46. Continental philosophy is a broad term that encompasses a variety of philosophical movements, including: A. Analytic philosophy and pragmatism B. Phenomenology, existentialism, and post-structuralism C. Logical positivism and behaviorism D. Idealism and rationalism E. Empiricism and skepticism
47. Pragmatism is a philosophical movement that emphasizes: A. The importance of abstract ideas and theoretical knowledge B. The importance of subjective experience and individual interpretation C. The importance of practical consequences and real-

- world applications D. The importance of logical consistency and formal reasoning E. The importance of traditional values and cultural heritage
48. Postmodernism is a philosophical movement that challenges: A. The notion of objective truth and universal knowledge B. The authority of traditional institutions and power structures C. The concept of a singular, unified narrative of history D. All of the above E. None of the above
49. A fallacy of begging the question occurs when: A. One assumes the conclusion in the premises B. One attacks the person making the argument instead of the argument itself C. One draws a conclusion based on insufficient evidence D. One assumes that a correlation implies causation E. One presents only two options as if they were the only possibilities
50. A fallacy of straw man occurs when: A. One misrepresents an opponent's argument in order to make it easier to attack B. One attacks the person making the argument instead of the argument itself C. One draws a conclusion based on insufficient evidence D. One assumes that a correlation implies causation E. One presents only two options as if they were the only possibilities
51. A fallacy of red herring occurs when: A. One introduces an irrelevant topic to divert attention from the main issue B. One attacks the person making the argument instead of the argument itself C. One draws a conclusion based on insufficient evidence D. One assumes that a correlation implies causation E. One presents only two options as if they were the only possibilities
52. A fallacy of appeal to emotion occurs when: A. One uses emotional appeals to persuade others, rather than logical reasoning B. One attacks the person making the argument instead of the argument itself C. One draws a conclusion based on insufficient evidence D. One assumes that a correlation implies causation E. One presents only two options as if they were the only possibilities
53. A fallacy of appeal to ignorance occurs when: A. One argues that a claim is true because it has not been proven false B. One attacks the person making the argument instead of the argument itself C. One draws a conclusion based on insufficient evidence D. One assumes that a correlation implies causation E. One presents only two options as if they were the only possibilities
54. What is the core principle of liberalism? A. Collective ownership of property B. Absolute monarchy C. Individual liberty and limited government D. Traditional social hierarchy E. Divine right of kings
55. Which philosopher is associated with the concept of the "social contract"? A. Plato B. Aristotle C. Thomas Hobbes D. Immanuel Kant E. Friedrich Nietzsche
56. What is the primary focus of John Rawls' theory of justice? A. Maximizing individual utility B. Ensuring equal outcomes for all C. Prioritizing the needs of the least advantaged D. Upholding traditional social hierarchies E. Promoting economic growth
57. What is the core idea of utilitarianism? A. The greatest good for the greatest number B. The inherent dignity and worth of every individual C. The importance of following traditional customs and values D. The pursuit of individual autonomy and self-interest E. The divine right of kings
58. What is the primary concern of communitarianism? A. Individual rights and liberties B. The role of the state in regulating the economy C. The importance of community and shared values D. The pursuit of personal happiness and fulfillment E. The need for a strong, centralized government
59. What is the primary characteristic of inductive reasoning? A. It moves from specific observations to general conclusions. B. It moves from general principles to specific conclusions. C. It relies on formal rules of inference. D. It is based on deductive syllogisms. E. It is always certain and infallible.
60. What is the primary characteristic of deductive reasoning? A. It moves from specific observations to general conclusions. B. It moves from general principles to specific conclusions. C. It relies on informal reasoning and intuition. D. It is based on inductive generalizations. E. It is always uncertain and probabilistic.
61. A deductive argument is considered valid if: A. Its conclusion is true. B. Its premises are true. C. Its conclusion follows logically from its premises. D. It is based on empirical evidence. E. It is supported by popular opinion.
62. An inductive argument is considered strong if: A. Its conclusion is necessarily true. B. Its premises are logically certain. C. Its conclusion is highly probable, given the premises. D. It is based on a small sample size. E. It is based on anecdotal evidence.
63. What is a fallacy? A. A valid form of argument B. A sound argument C. A true premise D. A logical error in reasoning E. A well-supported conclusion
64. ... is the father of philosophy. A. Socrates B. Anaximander C. Thales D. Xenophane E. Pythagoras
65. German Idealism evolves during the A. ancient period B. dark ages C. medieval period D. modern period E. contemporary period
66. The doctrine of "esse est percipi" is ascribed to A. Xenophane B. Berkeley C. Locke D. Russell E. Kant
67. One of the following is not a social contract theorist A. Kant B. Hobbes C. Rousseau D. Locke E. Rawls
68. The book "Essay Concerning Human Understanding" was written by A. George Berkeley B. John Locke C. Bertrand Russell D. David Hume E. Richard S. Peters
69. Dr B. Akarue is the director of DELSU programme in College of Education, Warri is an example of A. a priori truth B. pragmatic truth C. correspondence truth D. coherent truth E. rational truth
70. An example of self-evident truth is A. a triangle B. Dr D. Oyovwi is the Provost of COEWA C. A is A D. A is either true or false E. A is true but I don't believe it